

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

APPROXIMATELY 13.98 Million USDT

Defendant In Rem.

Civ. No. 25-3943 (ABJ)

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR PARTIAL JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS FOR A PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE

For the reasons stated in the accompanying Memorandum Opinion and the pleadings, it is hereby found that all litigants admit the facts supporting the United States's claims for forfeiture and the United States has set forth reasonable bases to support forfeiture as required, pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Supplemental Rule G(2)(f), and it is therefore hereby PRELIMINARILY ORDERED that the defendant property is forfeited to the United States.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that any remaining claimant must now proceed with proofs regarding its affirmative defense by a preponderance of the evidence to avoid a Final Judgment of Forfeiture.
